FORTHCOMING

The Italians of Greenwich Village

by Donald Tricarico, Ph.D.

This book is a study of the communal adaptations made by the second and third generation Italian community in Greenwich Village. It focuses on institutional changes in the areas of family, religion, politics, economics and social life. These transformations are analyzed in relation to communal traditions and the new urban environment. Special attention is given to the effects of dwindling population and the expansion of the SoHo artist community on Italian neighborhood life.

Hard Cover $17.50; Soft Cover $12.95.
